

REVISED TENTATIVE RECITAL SCHEDULE

Saturday, June 12, 2010

Horizon High School

This is a revised recital schedule due to some scheduling conflicts for a couple of teachers and classes. Please note that your dancer's class MAY HAVE CHANGED from the previous schedule.

Since I had to revise the schedule, I tried to take into consideration siblings and dancers with multiple classes. EVERY effort was made to try and accommodate both of these needs and get classes in the same show. However, because there are over 200 dancers and many classes involved, I was not able to work everything out. In the event that you have siblings in different shows OR a dancer that is in multiple classes that are in different shows, please contact me. I would like to give you 2 complimentary tickets to the second show your dancer is in and I will give you a discount for any additional tickets you might need for the second show.

NOTE: There are SEVERAL classes that will be in BOTH shows. This was done to try and accommodate the siblings and multiple classes. If your dancer is NOT able to dance in both shows, that is fine, however, please us know. We need to have accurate counts of dancers in each class to help with backstage line-up, etc. I have indicated the classes in both shows in blue.

Also, please remember that this schedule is NOT in the order of the recital. We will post a show order schedule in May. When this schedule is posted, please review it carefully and make sure that your dancer has at least 3 songs in which to change costumes if they are in multiple classes.

Finally, please notify me ASAP if I have left a class off the schedule or if you have questions or concerns.
